

Date: September 9, 2021
From: Mission Neighborhood Health Center
Contact: Lupita Franco (415) 542-6678

MEDIA ANNOUNCEMENT

APPLY: The Adelante! Youth Leaders Advancing Health Equity program is open to high school students in San Francisco, to become health educators

(San Francisco) – The Mission Neighborhood Health Center (MNHC) announces that the Adelante! Youth Program is receiving applications for its 2021-2022 cohort. The Adelante! Youth Leaders Advancing Health Equity trains San Francisco high school students interested in becoming health educators. The training program supports youth through personal development and community engagement. The program is English-Spanish bilingual and has a primary focus on youth in the Mission and Excelsior Districts.

Students will be meeting on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, from 4PM to 6PM, via Zoom, and a few times in-person (depending on conditions due to the COVID19 pandemic.) Those who perform well and finish the program will receive a stipend.

Applications are available. The deadline to apply is September 17, 2021. For more information, please contact Yojani Ulloa at (415) 552-1013 ext. 2380, and Jennifer Martinez at (415) 552-1013 ext. 2292.

ABOUT MNHC:

Founded in 1967, Mission Neighborhood honors our Latino roots with a tradition of providing compassionate, patient-centered care. We advocate for health equity and deliver innovative, high-quality services responsive to the neighborhoods and diverse communities we served.

Follow us:

MNHC Mission Neighborhood Center (English)
Clínica de la Shotwell (Spanish)